Follow a creek channel across a flat to the back of a cove, and chances are you will find catfish somewhere along it. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET Catfish can be caught in cold water, even when ice fishing.Ā Ābut this is uncommon. In lakes, itĀ Āoften helps to pre-bait a hole (this is actually a form of chumming)Ā Āto draw cats into a smaller area to catch them. Clarity: Moderate stain. Local marinas often offer the best resources for fisherman seeking tide reports, fishing secrets and even advice regarding the type of tackle or rigging that works best in your specific region. For huge flatheads, a 6-inch or bigger bream or shad is best. Bass: Guide Mike Carter reports, Read More Guntersville: Level: 0.5 feet below full. Take a look at this guide for some great tips on finding local fishing reports perfect for your area.Check With the Local Experts and Explore Your AreaLocal fishing reports help you target the right species of fish with the right equipment, at the right time. Download an app like My Fishing Forecast and customize it to select your particular fishing area. Just as there are apps for checking the weather, there are plenty more designed to make finding local fishing reports a breeze. All of these species are fun to catch and good to eat.Ā ĀSmaller fish are preferred for cooking because bigger ones, except for flatheads, can get tough. Smaller cats are more fun to catch on lighter spinning or baitcasting rods, and they provide good sport with this equipment. These fish are usually most active in warm water.
